

History of the Lac La Ronge Indian Band

JAMES ROBERTS BAND Chief James Roberts signed adhesion to Treaty Number 6 on February 11, 1889 (Paylist of 1889)

La Ronge & Stanley Mission
Chief James Roberts
1888 - 1901
(Under one Band)

Treaty 6 document is available in PDF form

In 1895, Peter Ballantyne and 7 other families of Ballantyne were paid annuities under James Roberts Band (Pay list of 1895). In 1900, Peter Ballantyne was allowed to form his own Band under his name in Pelican Narrows (Pay list)

La Ronge & Stanley Mission
Chief Amos Charles
1901 - 1910
(Under one Band)

In 1910, James Roberts Band split into two Bands: one under James Roberts, the other following Amos Charles (Pay list of 1910).

In 1910, James Roberts Band split into two Bands: one under James Roberts, the other following Amos Charles (Pay list of 1910).

Under James Roberts Band

JAMES ROBERTS BAND

La Ronge, Sask
Chief Joseph Charles
1910 - 1946
(After the split)

JAMES ROBERTS BAND

La Ronge, Sask
Chief Moses Ratt
1946 - 1950
(After the split)

In 1910, James Roberts Band split into two Bands: one under James Roberts, the other following Amos Charles (Pay list of 1910).

Under Amos Charles (Pay list of 1910)

AMOS CHARLES BAND

Stanley Mission, Sask.
Chief Amos Charles
1910 - 1930

(After the split)

AMOS CHARLES BAND

Stanley Mission, Sask.
Chief Walter McKenzie
1930 - 1945
(After the split)

AMOS CHARLES BAND

Stanley Mission, Sask.
Chief Nehemiah Charles

1945 - 1950
(After the split)

In 1950, the Bands amalgamated and became as the Lac La Ronge Indian Band (Preliminary Report, 1972)

LAC LA RONGE INDIAN BAND Join Chiefs

Chief Moses Ratt
1950 - 1955

Chief Nehemiah Charles
1950 - 1955

There was no Chief from 1955 - 1967

La Ronge & Stanley Mission
Chief Isaiah Charles
1967 - 1969
(After amalgamation)

La Ronge & Stanley Mission
Chief John Cook
1969 - 1971
(After amalgamation)

La Ronge & Stanley Mission
Chief James Myles Venne

1971 - 1983
(After amalgamation)

La Ronge & Stanley Mission
Chief Thomas (Tom) McKenzie
1983 - 1985
(After amalgamation)

La Ronge & Stanley Mission
Chief James Myles Venne
1985 - 1987
(After amalgamation)

La Ronge & Stanley Mission
Chief Harry Cook
1987 - 2005
(After amalgamation)

La Ronge & Stanley Mission
Chief Tammy Cook-Searson
2005 - Present
(After amalgamation)