

Saskatchewan
Health Authority

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Health Officials Warning About Swift River Flows

USE EXTREME CAUTION around lakes and rivers in the province. An abundance of rain this spring has led to high water levels and substantially higher water flows. Things can change from calm to dangerous very quickly.

Always Wear a Life Jacket

Watch Speed On the Water

No Drinking While Boating/Swimming

Use Extra Caution Near or In Water

No Travelling at Night

Children/Non-Swimmers Should Be Supervised

For more information on stream flows and lake levels in Saskatchewan, visit:

<https://www.wsask.ca/Lakes-and-Rivers/Stream-Flows-and-Lake-Levels/>

saskhealthauthority.ca